After returning to England he became professor of oriental languages at the newly opened East India College at Hailey in Hertfordshire from 1807-1827. The purpose of the College was to train 'writers', i.e. administrators for the Honourable East India Company.

37 Wilson (James). A Missionary Voyage to the Southern Pacific Ocean, performed in the Years 1796, 1797, 1798, in the Ship Duff, commander by Captain James Wilson ... including Details never before published, of the Natural and Civil State of Otaheite, 1st edition, London: by S. Gosnell, for T. Chapman, 1799, 13 engraved maps and plates (a few folding), light offsetting, General Map spotted, a few spots to other plates or maps, General Map and Feejee Islands map each with retrievable paper-disruption to central intersection of folds, engraved bookplate (Arthur Kelly, Kelly), contemporary marbled calf, rebacked with original spine laid down, 4to (28.9 x 22.2 cm)

Borba de Moraes II pp. 378-9; ESTC T87461; Ferguson 301; cf. Sabin 49490 (for the 'ordinary' edition).

The preferred Gosnell edition: there was also an 'ordinary' edition (Ferguson) with the imprint 'for T. Chapman ... by T. Gillet', in a completely different setting and on smaller paper; Gosnell's edition is thought to have priority. Borba de Moraes is mistaken in citing a second edition 'similar in all details [to Gosnell's edition] except for the signature of the plates', that is, with 'J. Landseer direxit' rather than 'for Missionary Voyage': it is in fact Gosnell's edition in which the plates have 'J. Landseer direxit'.

'The Duff was the first missionary vessel to sail the little-known waters of the Pacific Ocean. After 208 days the vessel reached Tahiti, landing seventeen missionaries there, a further twelve at Tonga, and one on the Marquesas ... Several of the missionaries settled in Australia and founded families important in Australian history. The Duff proceeded from Tonga through the Fiji and Caroline Groups to Canton. In the course of this voyage the Duff Group was discovered and named and the knowledge of Pacific geography considerably extended' (Ferguson).

107 Europe. Hadol (Paul), Nouvelle Carte D' Europe Dressée pour 1870, circa 1870, engraved allegorical map with contemporary hand-colouring, descriptive French text below the image, old folds, several marginal closed tears crudely repaired on the verso, some tape staining to the recto but not affecting the image, 335 x 445 mm, together with Excelsior (publication). La Révolution Chinoise Aggrave le Péril Jaune, 3rd November 1911, black and white printed allegorical map of Europe being the frontispiece of the Excelsior Magazine, 510 x 340 mm, with a music sheet cover of 'The Great Globe. Quadrilles by Stephen Glover', a colour printed circular lithographic map of the Eastern hemisphere, some dust soiling, slight staining, old music publisher's blind stamp to the upper left corner, 345 x 240 mm, plus a pen and watercolour manuscript map on card of ancient Troy, 185 x 140 mm

The first described item is a satirical and political map of Europe showing the various countries personified in caricature and alludes to the tensions that finally erupted as the Franco-Prussian War in July 1870. This appears to be a variant edition of Hadol's map – possibly a plagiarisation – as there are some slight alterations to the title cartouche and it lacks Hadol's name. The ensuing conflict resulted in France being humiliated, creating a powerful and unified Germany which laid the foundations of both the World Wars in the 20th century. There are later examples of this map with German, English and Dutch text.

The second item is an unusual variation on the 'Octopus map' which shows Russia as an aggressive cephalopod whose tentacles reach across Europe. In this case, the danger is shown to be China and Japan and the 'tentacles' are replaced with the overgrown fingernails of Fu Manchu who reaches from over the horizon to engulf Europe.

PROLOGUE

Flourish.

New Plays and Maidenheads are near a-kin,
Much follow'd both; for both much money give,
If they stand found, and well: And a good Play
(Whose modest Scenes blots on his marriage day,
And shaks to lose his honour) is like him
That after holy Tre, and first night's stir
Yet still is modest, and still retains
More of the Maid to fight, than Flusbands pain;
We pray our Play may be so; for I'm sure
It has a noble breeder, and a pure,
A Learned, and a Poet never went
More famous yet 'twixt Po, and fiver Trent.
Chaucer (of all admir'd) the Story gives,
There constant to eternity it lives:
If we let fall the Nobleness of this,
And the first found this Child bear, be a kiss,

How will it shake the bones of that good man
And make him cry from under-ground, Oh son
From on the wile's chaff of such a writer
That blazs my Baye, and my fan'd Work makes light-
Than Robin Hood, this is the fear we bring
For to say Truth, it were an endless thing:
And too ambitious to aspire to him;
Weak as we are, and almost breathless swim
In his deep water. Do but you hold out
Your helping hands, and we shall tack about,
And something do to save us: You shall bear
Scenes, though below his Art, may yet appear
Worth two hours travel. To his bones sweet sleep:
Content to you. If this Play do not keep,
A little dull time from us, we perceive
Our losses fall so thick, we must needs leave.

Flourish.

Actus Primus. Scena Prima.

Enter Hymen with a Torch burning; a Boy, in a white Robe before, singing, and strewing Flowers: after Hymen, a
Nymph, encompass'd in her Tresses, bearing a wheaton Garland. Then Thefeus between two other Nymphs, with wheaton Chaplets on their heads. Then Hippolita the Bride lead by Thefeus, and another holding a Garland over her head (her Tresses likewise hanging.) After her Em-elia holding up her Train.

The SONG. Musick.

Offer their sharp spines being gone,
Not royal in their smells alone,
But in their hew,
Maiden-Pinks, of odour faint,
Draizes sweet hys, yet most quaint
And sweet Time trace.

Primrose first born, child of Ver,
Merry Spring-time's Harbinger,

With hot hets dimm,
Oxlips in their Cradles growing,
Margolds on death-beds blowing,
Lark-bells trim.

All these names children's feet,
Lie for Bride and Briderooms feet,
Blessing their fence.
Not an Angel of the Air,
Bird melodious, or Bird fair,
Is absent hence.

The Crow, the stammerous Cuckoo, nor
The leading Raven, nor Clough be
Nor chattering Pie,
May on our Bridecouple's perch or sing,
Or with them any discord bring
But from us fly.

There are many editions bearing this date, which while agreeing closely are yet distinct. No doubt a certain number of copies were originally issued in a mixed state. The nominal date, 1599, is probably untrue in almost every case.

Stephen Gardiner (1483-1555) was the Bishop of Winchester, and Mary Tudor's chancellor during the persecution of the Protestants, who died before Cranmer was executed on 21st March 1556. Cranmer's Aunswere, part of a controversy between Cranmer and Gardiner on the sacrament of communion, was first published by Wolfe in 1551.

A reply to "An explication and assertion of the true catholique fayth, touchyng the moost blessed sacrament of the aulter" by Stephen Gardiner and "A confutation of a certen booke, called a defence of the true, and catholike doctrine of the sacrament, &c. sette fourth of late in the name of Thomas Archebyssshoppe of Canterburye" by Richard Smith.

The text includes a reprint of Gardiner's work and portions of Cranmer's "A defence of the true and catholike doctrine of the sacrament of the body and bloud of our saviour Christ".

The woodcuts on the two plates (not present in this copy) were from blocks used in Foxe's "Book of martyrs", and Cranmer's life is in part compiled from the same. The plates were sometimes bound folded.

Palau 110210 & 110212; USTC 336710 & 336732. One of several editions of Guevara's letters issued by Villaquirán and which was first published by him in 1539. Some of the letters reflect on the Revolt of the Comuneros of 1520-1521, in which Castile (including the city of Valladolid) sought to free itself from the rule of Charles V, who was perceived as a foreigner; Guevara claimed to have been an eye-witness to the events. His accounts of the time, however, have been shown to be a combination of fiction and history, portraying himself in the best way possible with the help of hindsight.

"A needful caveat or admonition" (caption title on p. 406) is by Alexander Ross. Alexander Ross (1590-1654) was a Scottish christian cleric, orientalist and a chaplain to King Charles I, known for making the first complete English translation of the Quran on May 7, 1649. The translation named "The Alcoran of Mahomet" was translated from a French translation by André du Ryer published in 1647, and not from original Arabic (Ross did not read Arabic). Some have stated that the original author of this translation is anonymous, but it is attributed to Ross due to his writing a caveat to it. The translation is at times widely different from the original but is important for being the first English translation of the Quran.

"Tacitus is the outstanding historian and the principal prose writer of the Silver Age of Latin letters... Relatively unknown during the Middle Ages, Tacitus, whose works were first printed in Venice about 1473 and several times reprinted before the end of the century, exercised great influence on Renaissance historians. Justus Lipsius (1547-1606), the Netherlands scholar, knew the whole of Tacitus by heart, and his great edition (here cited), nineteen times reprinted, is one of the monuments of sixteenth-century scholarship. In a life much vexed by the violence of governments, he found much, as his notes declare, in common with Tacitus's ironic and cynical records of first-century Rome." (PMM).

The first edition of Ware's "massive and compendious" work (ODNB). "Most of Ware's designs were as Palladian in character as might be expected from an architect of his background and credentials. However, as a prominent member of the St Martin's Lane Academy he was also a colleague of such rococo artists as Hogarth, Roubiliac, and Francis Hayman: this is reflected not only in the surprisingly latitudinarian views occasionally found in the pages of the Complete Body but also in the dazzling interiors of his most important work, Chesterfield House, Mayfair (1748?9; dem. 1934), designed in a full-blooded French rococo idiom for the francophile fourth Earl of Chesterfield." The plates were irregularly numbered 1-122, with numbers 38,43, 44, 46, 97, 100, 108 & 109 omitted (Harris).

BRIAN GYSEN

HASCHICH FUDGE

(which anyone could whip up on a rainy day)

This is the food of Paradise—of Baudelaire's Artificial Paradises: it might provide an entertaining refreshment for a Ladies' Bridge Club or a chapter meeting of the DAR. In Morocco it is thought to be good for warding off the common cold in damp winter weather and is, indeed, more effective if taken with large quantities of hot mint tea. Euphoria and brilliant storms of laughter; ecstatic reveries and extensions of one's personality on several simultaneous planes are to be complacently expected. Almost anything Saint Theresa did, you can do better if you can bear to be ravished by 'un évanouissement reveillé.'

Take 1 teaspoon black peppercorns, 1 whole nutmeg, 4 average sticks of cinnamon, 1 teaspoon coriander. These should all be pulverised in a mortar. About a handful each of stoned dates, dried figs, shelled almonds and peanuts: chop these and mix them together. A bunch of canibus sativa can be pulverised. This along with the spices should be dusted over the mixed fruit and nuts, kneaded together. About a cup of sugar dissolved in a big pat of butter. Rolled into a cake and cut into pieces or made into balls about the size of a walnut, it should be eaten with care. Two pieces are quite sufficient.

Obtaining the canibus may present certain difficulties, but the variety known as canibus sativa grows as a common weed, often unrecognised, everywhere in Europe, Asia and parts of Africa; besides being cultivated as a crop for the manufacture of rope. In the Americas, while often discouraged, its cousin, called canibus indica, has been observed even in city window boxes. It should be picked and dried as soon as it has gone to seed and while the plant is still green.

ORANGE AND LEMON DESSERT

Ingredients: 2 dozen lady fingers split,  $\frac{1}{4}$  lb. butter, 1 cup sugar,  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint heavy cream, 3 eggs beaten separately, juice of 1 large orange, juice of 1 lemon, 1 tablespoon orange rind, 1 teaspoon lemon rind,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup chopped nutmeats ground very fine, rum.

425 Toklas (Alice B.). The Alice B. Toklas Cook Book, 1st edition, Michael Joseph, 1954, black & white illustrations after Francis Rose, half-title browned, foremargins of pages 15-18 a little chipped, contemporary cream buckram with gilt-titled leather label to spine, a few minor marks, 8vo

Provenance: From the library of John Arlott (1914-1991), English journalist, author, cricket commentator, poet and wine connoisseur.

Alice Babette Toklas (1877-1967) was the life partner of the American writer Gertrude Stein. Including anecdotes about their numerous well-known friends the recipes celebrate their time in Paris. This English first edition includes the infamous recipe for 'Hashish Fudge' (from the Surrealist artist Brian Gysin) and which Toklas suggests 'anyone could whip up on a rainy day ... it might provide entertaining refreshment for a Ladies' Bridge Club' (p. 259). The recipe was removed from the American and later editions.

WEDNESDAY 15 DECEMBER 2021

I shall get in touch with you again before Saturday.

Yours every Roger

JCM 21.3 on Saturday.

Am now a bit worried about all this. Today did 3:52 3/4. Rest of week will experiment. I think I may attack 3:43 in Helsinki. Are the races on separate days in which case Monkey might be able to run the first half mile for me? I shall talk of running after the A.A.A's.

Sir Roger Gilbert Bannister CH CBE FRCP (1929–2018). British middle-distance athlete and neurologist who ran the first sub-4-minute mile. The non-running Nero Lemania stopwatch used by (unofficial) timekeeper and stadium announcer Norris McWhirter on the occasion of Roger Bannister's world record, the first sub 4-minute mile, Iffley Road, Oxford, 6 May 1954, together with a small archive of related photographs, original and copy letters and papers, mostly between Bannister and McWhirter, c.1951-1973

Provenance: From the family of Norris Dewar McWhirter CBE (1925-2004).

Norris McWhirter and his twin brother Ross were known internationally for the founding of The Guinness Book of Records, which they wrote and annually updated together for over two decades. McWhirter came to public attention while working for the BBC as a sports commentator. On the day of Bannister's record there were five official timekeepers: W.C.A. Findlay, C.S. Hill, R.G. Hudson, L.R. Richards and W.J. Burfitt, of which Hill and Burfitt's stopwatches have previously been sold at auction. McWhirter, a close friend and training ally of Bannister, also kept time with the stopwatch offered here, and was the stadium announcer.

After the race McWhirter famously declared: "Ladies and gentlemen, here is the result of Event Number Nine, the One Mile. First, Number Forty-One, R.G. Bannister, of the Amateur Athletic Association, and formerly of Exeter and Merton Colleges, with a time which is a new meeting and track record, and which, subject to ratification, will be a new English native, British national, British All-Comers', European, British Empire and world record. The time is three [at which point the rest of the announcement was lost in the roar of the 1,200 crowd] minutes, fifty-nine point four seconds."

Estimate £3,000-5,000*

ARTIST'S RESALE RIGHT LAW ("DROIT DE SUITE")

Lots marked with AR next to the lot number may be subject to Droit de Suite.

Droit de Suite is payable on the hammer price of any artwork sold in the lifetime of the artist, or within 70 years of the artist's death. The buyer agrees to pay Dominic Winter Auctioneers Ltd. an amount equal to the resale royalty and we will pay such amount to the artist's collecting agent. Resale royalty applies where the Hammer price is 1,000 Euros or more and the amount cannot be more than 12,500 Euros per lot.

The amount is calculated as follows:

Royalty For the Portion of the Hammer Price (in Euros)

4.00% up to 50,000

3.00% between 50,000.01 and 200,000

1.00% between 200,000.01 and 350,000

0.50% between 350,000.01 and 500,000

Invoices will, as usual, be issued in Pounds Sterling. For the purposes of calculating the resale royalty the Pounds Sterling/Euro rate of exchange will be the European Central Bank reference rate on the day of the sale.

Please refer to the DACS website www.dacs.org.uk and the Artists' Collecting Society website www.artistscollectingsociety.org for further details.

CONDITIONS OF SALE AND BUSINESS

1. The Seller warrants to the Auctioneer and the buyer that he is the true owner or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims.
2. (a) The highest bidder to be the buyer. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen he has absolute authority to settle it or re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid, divide any lot, combine any two or more lots or withdraw any lot without prior notice.
(b) Where goods are bought at auction by a buyer who has entered into an agreement with another or others that the other or others (or some of them) shall abstain from bidding for the goods and the buyer or other party or one of the other parties is a dealer (as defined in the Auction Biddings Agreement Act 1927) the buyer warrants that the goods are bought bona fide on joint account.
3. The buyer shall pay the price at which a lot is knocked down by the Auctioneer to the buyer ("the hammer price") together with a premium of 20% of the hammer price. Where the lot is marked by an asterisk the premium will be subject to VAT at 20% which under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme will form part of the buyer's premium on our invoice and will not be separately identified (the premium added to the hammer price will hereafter collectively be referred to as "the total sum due"). By making any bid the buyer acknowledges that his attention has been drawn to the fact that on the sale of any lot the Auctioneer will receive from the seller commission at its usual rates in addition to the said premium of 20% and assents to the Auctioneer receiving the said commission.
4. (a) The buyer shall forthwith upon the purchase give in his name and permanent address and pay to the Auctioneer immediately after the conclusion of the auction the total sum due.
(b) The buyer may be required to pay down during the course of the sale the whole or any part of the total sum due, and if he fails to do so after such request the lot or lots may at the Auctioneer's absolute discretion be put up again and resold immediately.
(c) The buyer shall at his own expense take away any lot or lots purchased no later than five working days after the auction day.
(d) The Auctioneer may at his own discretion agree credit terms with a buyer and extend the time limits for collection in special cases but otherwise payment shall be deemed to have been made only after the Auctioneer has received cash or a sterling banker's draft or the buyer's cheque has been cleared.
5. (a) If the buyer fails to pay for or take away any lot or lots pursuant to clause 4 or breaches any other condition of that clause the Auctioneer as agent for the seller shall be entitled after consultation with the seller to exercise one or other of the following rights:
(i) Rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the buyer who defaults and re-sell the lot or lots whereupon the defaulting buyer shall pay to the Auctioneer any shortfall between the proceeds of that sale after deduction of costs of re-sale and the total sum due. Any surplus shall belong to the seller.
(ii) Proceed for damages for breach of contract.
(b) Without prejudice to the Auctioneer's rights hereunder if any lots or lots are not collected within five days or such longer period as the Auctioneer may have agreed otherwise, the Auctioneer may charge the buyer a storage charge of £1.00 + VAT at the current rate per lot per day.
(c) Ownership of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has paid to the Auctioneer the total sum due.
6. (a) The seller shall be entitled to place a reserve on any lot and the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller for any lot on which a reserve has been placed. A seller may not bid on any lot on which a reserve has been placed.
(b) Where any lot fails to sell, the Auctioneer shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot and may be asked to pay a commission not exceeding 50% of the selling commission and any special expenses incurred in cataloguing the lot.
(c) If such arrangements are not made within seven days of the notification the Auctioneer is empowered to sell the lot by auction or by private treaty at not less than the reserve price and to receive from the seller the normal selling commission and special expenses.
7. Any representation or statement by the Auctioneer in any catalogue, brochure or advertisement of forthcoming sales as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his own judgement as to such matters and neither the Auctioneer nor his servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions. No warranty whatsoever is given by the Auctioneer or the seller in respect of any lot and any express or implied warranties are hereby excluded.
8. (a) Notwithstanding any other terms of these conditions, if within fourteen days of the sale the Auctioneer has received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within fourteen days after such notification the buyer returns the same to the Auctioneer in the same condition as at the time of the sale and satisfies the Auctioneer that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. "A deliberate forgery" means a lot made with intention to deceive.
(b) A buyer's claim under this condition shall be limited to any amount paid to the Auctioneer for the lot and for the purpose of this condition the buyer shall be the person to whom the original invoice was made out by the Auctioneer.
9. Lots may be removed during the sale after full settlement in accordance with 4(d) hereof.
10. All goods delivered to the Auctioneer's premises will be deemed to be delivered for sale by auction unless otherwise stated in writing and will be catalogued and sold at the Auctioneer's discretion and accepted by the Auctioneer subject to all these conditions. In the case of miscellaneous books, the Auctioneer reserves the right to extract and dispose of books that, in the opinion of the Auctioneer at his absolute discretion, have no saleable value and, therefore, might detract from the saleability of the rest of the lot and the Auctioneer shall incur no liability to the seller, in respect of the books disposed of. By delivering the goods to the Auctioneer for inclusion in his auction sales each seller acknowledges that he/she accepts and agrees to all the conditions.
11. (a) Unless otherwise instructed in writing all goods on the Auctioneer's premises and in their custody will be held insured against the risks of fire, burglary, water damage and accidental breakage or damage. The value of the goods so covered will be the hammer price, or in the case of unsold lots the lower estimate, or in the case of loss or damage prior to the sale that which the specialised staff of the Auctioneer shall in their absolute discretion estimate to be the auction value of such goods.
(b) The Auctioneer shall not be responsible for damage to or the loss, theft, or destruction of any goods not so insured because of the owner's written instructions.
12. The Auctioneer shall remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller thirty days after the day of the auction provided that the Auctioneer has received the total sum due from the buyer. In all other cases the Auctioneer will remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller within seven days of the receipt by the Auctioneer of the total sum due. The Auctioneer will not be deemed to have received the total sum due until after any cheque delivered by the buyer has been cleared. In the event of the Auctioneer exercising his right to rescind the sale his obligation to the seller hereunder lapses.
13. In the case of the seller withdrawing instructions to the Auctioneer to sell any lot or lots, the Auctioneer may charge a fee of 12.5% of the Auctioneer's middle estimate of the auction price of the lot withdrawn together with Value Added Tax thereon and any expenses incurred in respect of the lot or lots.
14. The Auctioneer's current standard notices and information (i.e. Collation and Amendments) will apply to any contract with the Auctioneer as if incorporated herein.
15. These conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law.
